| The section GSI encourages questions, never making any question feel like a dumb one. They understand the subject very well and always provide clear answers. Enthusiasm is also shown when teaching which makes section more enjoyable to come to. |

| Everything is great in section. But the course itself needs improvement on the exams. We absolutely need either more time for the exams or shorter exams. Not because the exams are hard but because there wasn't even time to read the question prompts in full, which is unfair and honestly unacceptable. |
